PERSONAL DECLARATION

I, firstname, hereby declare that I am a man/woman of flesh and blood, heart, and soul. I stand under the common laws and rules of equity, shared by all, owned by none and superior to all others, and I agree to the rules and ethos of the Association.

I, firstname, to the best of my ever-expanding capacity, personal commitment to myself and other Members of the Association, that I am ready and willing to commit and to participate in the Association, the projects and enterprises it supports, and to live a peaceful, harmonious, collaborative, orientation through life, without competition or rivalry.

My personal undertaking to myself

I, firstname, declare my commitment to my own personal spiritual learning and development, seeking to fully Love myself and My Neighbour, to be at peace with my fellowman, not harming or injuring them or their property, truly seeking to live in Peace and harmony with each other.

I accept that to seek equity one must do equity.

I further commit to my ever-expanding capacity to, do what I would truly love to do, being fully responsible for myself and my actions, loving myself and so selflessly serving others and honouring my own sovereign sentient rights, freedom, and privacy.

My commitment to the Empower the People Association

I declare that I will apply myself to embodying my intents and precepts for the Association's objectives and to apply myself as a participant in the community, remaining true to my present consciousness and my truth and to move through challenges into greater knowing and empowerment, for the benefit of all, not giving any importance to nationality, caste, gender, creed and religious ceremony, nor injuring nor damaging my fellowman, and so peacefully and harmoniously loving and living a new private life.

My Privacy and that of Others

I, firstname, acknowledge that the Empower the People Association and its Members have certain private information in the form of both spoken and written information related to their operations and their private and intellectual property, which may be made known and available to me from time to time during my membership and participation.

All private information will be referred to as private information and will be confirmed as such, in the form of verbal or written communication, and will be noted as such on documentation or other forms of media.

I, firstname, inner-stand that private information may be shared between appropriately identified participants and Members on a “need to know” basis, and hereby agree to keep private and not disclose any private information, relating to the Empower the People Association Members, its projects or endeavours, at any time or by any method whether it be verbal, written, electronic, or in any other form, and in particular as may be arbitrarily deemed necessary by any purported authority, statute or by any legislated law, so exercising my sovereign right to privacy.

I, firstname, make this declaration to my Higher Self and in accepting the unity of all life on earth, I also make it to all the other Members in the Association and would be willing to provide community service in its formation:
